SELLER TESTIMONIAL

“ We would like to thank Jeff for recently selling our rental unit at Kelvin Grove.

He provided excellent advice on how best to market the unit. Just one example is where he recommended adding “virtual furniture” for the online advertisement for the vacant unit which hugely improved its appearance.

During the process Jeff was very professional and kept us informed at all times of feedback from potential buyers. He sold the unit in a very short space of time for a price we were happy with.

Jeff negotiated the contract for the unit sale while we were overseas and went to great lengths to ensure we were satisfied with the outcome. Even after the contract was signed Jeff helped us by organising tradesmen to do a couple of minor repairs. He was fully involved in the whole process right up to settlement.

We changed from our rental agency in order to have Jeff sell the unit and we believe we could not have had a better Agent sell our property. We have no hesitation in recommending Jeff to other potential sellers. ”

“ARE YOU BEING SERVED?”

Jeff prides himself in the services he offers all clients whether it be buying or selling their homes, apartments or commercial offices - right down to the finest detail.

He is available 24/7 for after hours appointments.

The King And I Danced All Night

The revival of The King and I in recent years has brought back our love affair with the classic costumed musicals that made Rodgers and Hammerstein famous.

But if you didn't happen to catch it with Australia's very own queen of musicals Lisa McCune in the role of Anna, then make sure you have tickets booked for a very special Brisbane performance.

This year it will be the Savoyards Theatre Company that will take on the east meets west musical that Hollywood actor Yul Brynner made famous, winning one of the five Academy Awards the film received in 1956 for his role as the King of Siam.

Based on the memoirs of Anna Leonowens, the musical is set in the 1860s and tells the story of Anna, a genteel Welsh army widow who arrives in Siam with her young son Louis, to teach English and other western philosophies to the Royal family including the King's many wives and many more children. Cultural clashes ensue between the autocratic King and the early feminist Anna, which overtime develops into mutual admiration and attraction.

With its classic songs, gorgeous costumes and dance scenes, the Savoyards will have plenty to work with to make The King and I a great night out at the theatre.
