Fun and engaging literacy for pre-prep children

Give Your Little Learner A Head Start At The Shining Stars Tutoring Centre... Ashgrove ...

Whether you want to give your child a head start before they start school or you want to boost their ability to learn while in the first few years of starting their formal education then you might want to take a look at the Shining Stars Tutoring Centre.

Based at Ashgrove, the Centre offers the uniquely Australian program, developed by Dr Lillian Fawcett, "Cracking the ABC Code" which is aimed at helping children finding it difficult to read and write by offering a different method of teaching the basics.

But it is the Centre's focus on providing pre-prep literacy workshops that is providing a strong learning foundation for pre-schoolers.

The Centre's principal and registered, experienced teacher, Anne Richards, said teaching children the alphabet and sounds before they go to school is giving them a great start.

"As an experienced teacher I found that children who start school knowing their letters and the sounds they make, make considerably better progress when it comes to reading and writing during their first year of school - prep," Anne said.

"The Little Learners Love Literacy Program, is based on five important skills - phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary and literacy which current research indicates aid reading and learning.

"And the workshops are also a fun way to give youngsters a head start."

Find out more by contacting Anne at the Centre on 0448 003 832.

'S Wonderful, 's marvellous and it's Nice Work if You Can Get It.

Bootleggers, chorus girls, dowagers, playboys and great songs - that's what you will get when the Savoyards take to the stage with the toe tapping musical "Nice Work If You Can Get It", this September.

Written by Tony Award winning author Joe DiPetro and featuring well-known songs and score by George and Ira Gershwin in unexpected ways, the show recaptures the musicals of the 20s and 30s by featuring all the good things in life - music, laughter and falling in love.

While set in the 1920s during the years of American prohibition, the musical was first written and performed less than 20 years ago.

Despite its newness, it's flavour is traditional Broadway musical. A screwball comedy complete with fast talking, great singing, fabulous dancing and of course gorgeous costumes.

Nice Work If You Can Get It features a charming, wealthy but clueless playboy and a feisty female bootlegger who steals his heart in the days leading up to his wedding. Featuring some of Gershwin's most loved tunes including Let's Call the Whole Thing Off, Someone to Watch Over Me, 'S Wonderful, and Fascinating Rhythm, will make you want to sing and laugh out loud.

Tickets go on sale from 22 August. Book evening or matinee performance from 24 September to 8 October by visiting Savoyards website www.savoyards.com.au or phoning (07) 3893 4321.

SPOTLIGHT SHINES ON YOUNG PERFORMERS AT EISTEDDFOD

Organiser Heather Christensen said the eisteddfod was born to give local youth an opportunity to perform on stage.

"Over that time the number of participants and spectators has increased significantly, and more than 2,000 volunteer hours go into organising the event," she said.

"The best thing for us as organisers though is when we see entrants from many years ago bringing their children and students back to compete now."

Thanks to the support of Logan City Council and Bendigo Bank as corporate sponsors we are able to offer our $1,000 Bursaries and Scholarships in music - instrumental and vocal, drama and dance- ballet and Jazz. Bursaries & scholarships are awarded to section winners to enable them to develop their talents further.

Teachers say: "For my students, it's an opportunity for them to consolidate what they learn in their classes into performing and the little ones can be inspired by watching some of the older competitors."

"The eisteddfod attracts up to 20,000 performers each year, who come from as far away as the Sunshine Coast, Gatton and northern NSW, which is great for our city," she said.

"The performances are just superb, so I would encourage anyone interested in seeing talented youngsters to purchase tickets for some of the shows."

WINNING TESTIMONIAL ... ★★★★★

8 Devonhill Street, The Gap

"After meeting with Jeff Smith and discussing my needs and expectations, Jeff suggested a strategy to best achieve these objectives. We were able to discuss this and plan accordingly. This has resulted in 4 days from listing to a contract in hand-at a price I'm happy with. Jeff was very responsive and busy to achieve this and kept me in the loop at each step.

"Jeff was also responsive to the buyers needs and flexible in his approach - which is good for everyone. I appreciated Jeff's experience and his considerate style. He is calm and open and nothing seemed too much effort. This is especially appreciated in the reasonably stressful time of selling and buying property.

"I have no hesitation in recommending Jeff as an agent if you are in the market or planning to be." Deb (8 Devonhill St)

Exercise Your Brain And Your Body at Ashgrove Dance Studio

Men and Women
Welcome...

Learning to dance can be not only a lot of fun but a workout for the whole body. According to some neuroscientists the benefits of activities such as dancing, particularly as we age, can help maintain not only our bodies but also our brains.

In fact, both the social aspect of being with people and enjoying ourselves, combined with the more complex activity of dance, requires the use of several parts of the brain – parts which we don't normally exercise as we age. Through dance we coordinate action, memorise complex behaviour, move it from short-term to long-term memory while also socialising - predicting how our partner will respond and how we will respond to others.

Wendy and Judith Lowe, the directors of Ashgrove Dance Studio, one of Queensland's oldest dance schools, not only agree but can pay testament to the science. "When we took over the dance studio in the early 1970s, both of us had been dancing and teaching dance nearly all our lives," Wendy said.

These classes offer a wonderful social experience for men and women of all ages to get fit and enjoy!.

More Than 100 years Of Experience Shapes Today's Young Dancing Stars...

Judith and Wendy ~
The Ashgrove Dance Studio ...

*A*shgrove Dance Studio has been the dance studio of choice for thousands of ballerinas and dancers since the turn of the century – the 19th century that is.

The school's origins in 1899 make it one of the oldest, if not the oldest, dance studios in Queensland.

And while the studio continues to develop and celebrate its reputation for turning out some of the state's best dancers, performers and dance teachers, it is also sharing the narrative of its rich heritage.

Founded by Nellie Lawrence, the dance school and then studio has had only five principals since it was first established, with current heads, Wendy and Judith Lowe, at the helm since 1973. However, according to Judith, the studio's narrative is just as much a part of the studio's reputation as is its range of classes.

"Mrs Nellie Lawrence's grand-daughter Prue Galley, recently gifted a plaque from the school's first building to the studio and, while currently in our rehearsal space, it will eventually become part of the Museum of Brisbane collection," Judith said.

Wendy said that in 2012, Mrs Galley also donated an engraved silver teapot which was given to Mrs Lawrence by her students in 1911.

"100 years later we were able to show the teapot to students from the studio who were amazed when we told them that the engraved date of August '11 referred to 1911 not 2011," Wendy said.

In more than 100 years that the Ashgrove Dance Studio has been operating, thousands of Brisbane students have passed through its classes.

The studio's principals, Wendy and Judith Lowe, have been at the helm for forty-three years.
