Annual Ashgrove Dance Spectacular To Mark The End Of A Year Of Celebration...

Without giving away too many secrets and spoiling the experience – it would be a safe bet to say that the much anticipated annual Ashgrove Dance Studio Spectacular is set to wow the shoes off audiences who love a little bit of theatre! 2013 marks 40 years since Studio principals Wendy and Judith Lowe, opened the doors to students.

So it's only right and proper that this year's Ruby Anniversary celebrations culminate in a performance that is set to paint the town red! Wendy and Judy Lowe said the annual performance that marks the close of the studio's scholastic year will showcase all the glitz, glamour and grace that audiences have come to expect from the event – with some added ruby red pizzazz.

"The Ashgrove Dance Studio's annual extravaganza (TITLED ENCORE) is fast moving, extremely professional and offers the kind of entertainment that can't help but enthrall both dance enthusiasts and those who just want a ringside opportunity to preview some of our best up and coming performers before they hit the big time," Wendy said.

The ruby anniversary concert will also mark the celebration of another milestone – the Order of Australia Medal for service to the performing arts which the studio's Wardrobe Mistress, Mrs Theda Claire Lowe or "Ma" – received earlier this year.

"2013 is definitely an exciting and rewarding year for us and will forever remain a highlight in the history of Ashgrove Dance Studio," Judy said. Ashgrove Dance Studio's Ruby Anniversary dance extravaganza will be held on 10th, 11th and 12 October (including a matinee on Saturday) at The Playhouse, Queensland Performing Arts Complex, South Bank, Brisbane.

MARK YOUR DIARIES FOR 2014!

Plans are well underway for the 28th Annual Quota Beenleigh Logan Eisteddfod. We will be working hard to hold onto the Logan City Council, and the Bendigo Bank Sponsorships

Which have allowed us to continue with our Rose Cottager Ballet, Cherish Drama and Songbird Bursaries and introduce the Bendigo Bank Instrumental, Vocal, Jazz and Drama Scholarships.

We also hope to attract top class adjudicators once again – which will ensure performers receive excellent critique and encouragement to improve in their chosen field, and of course we will be using the excellent facilities at the Logan Entertainment Centre and the Crete Street Theatre for competitions.

With 17,000 performers, 112 schools and 60 performing Arts studios participating we are one of the largest and most diverse eisteddfods in this area. Each year we continue to grow, feedback indicates it is because of the organisation, level of competition and the fact that despite the size the atmosphere has that friendly feel.

Quotarians are delighted the eisteddfod is our community service program allowing us to reach and hopefully enable some performers to reach the next level of performance – it also allows us to involve groups like the guides who need to do community service work to attain their badges and members of the Junior Chamber and Junior Quota Club to also perform/learn extra skills for their future.

Check out the website www.quotabeenleigh.org.au for all information and more on the 2014 dates and closing times. Schedules will be available from the 11th February on line. We look forward to your entries.

Framing A Beautiful Christmas Gift...

A special photograph, work of art or even a certificate can be enhanced and made even more special - if framed correctly.

Unfortunately, for many of us, to have that framing done professionally usually costs an arm and a leg.

But not at Western Suburbs Framing Service where Dalerie Patterson, an artist and art-tutor, has provided framing from her own home at The Gap for 45 years.

Dalerie is able to do your framing work at fantastic prices.

An artist with a creative flair, Dalerie's frames will enhance the subject and look both professional and very special.

And what a great gift. With the festive season just around the corner and a 10 per cent discount for new customers on offer, now is the time to think about how framing that something special could put a very happy smile on the face of a loved one this Christmas.

ASHGROVE DANCE STUDIO - THE PERFECT PLACE TO LEARN TO REALLY DANCE.....

For many people starting at Ashgrove Dance Studio was the start of a lifelong love of dance. Classical, jazz, and tap are dance styles taught with style and aplomb at Ashgrove Dance Studio.

In more than 100 years that the Ashgrove Dance Studio has been operating, thousands of Brisbane students have passed through its classes.

The studio's principals, Wendy and Judith Lowe, have been at the helm for forty years.

Both registered teachers of the Royal Academy of Dancing in London, they have continued the fine tradition of providing lessons in classical dance, jazz and tap to students of all ages, plus a creative movement class for toddlers.

Savoyards Brings Musical Theatre To Life Half A Century On...

The Savoyards was the name given to performers who had played in Gilbert and Sullivan productions at the famous Savoy Theatre in London.

But for those of us who love theatre, the Savoyards bring to mind only one thing – excellent, home grown, live, musical theatre brought to life by none other than Brisbane's own Savoyards Musical Theatre Company.

Founded in 1961 by Olwyn and Jim Foley to provide the culturally starved Wynnum and Manly area with musical entertainment out of the Wynnum Municipal Library Hall, the company which grew up on a diet of Gilbert and Sullivan, is now one of the best and most well-known in South East Queensland.

Almost 53 years on, more than 250,000 people have attended at least one of the Savoyards' varied fare of not only Gilbert and Sullivan musicals but major, successful Broadway and west-end operettas and comedies.

In more recent years, Australian musicals have also graced the Savoyards' stage.

Producing between two and three productions a year, this passionate company of dedicated members has brought to life everything from the classic Oklahoma, HMS Pinafore, The King and I, The Sound of Music and Oliver to the popular Jesus Christ Superstar, The Boy From Oz, Paris and Les Miserables.

Varying their production team with each show, auditioning amateur actors from all over the State for roles in each production, and touring extensively throughout South East Queensland and New South Wales, has allowed the Savoyards to provide opportunities in, and exposure to, live entertainment for those who love to be behind, on, or seated in front of, a theatre's stage.

It is this specific openness to new ideas, methods, and changing audiences that has underlined the success story of this amateur theatre company.

And it shows no signs of stopping.

Almost 15 years ago, the company moved into the Iona Performing Arts Centre (IPAC) and it now calls the 500 seat theatre with spacious auditorium, large stage and backstage facilities – home.

If you haven't heard of the Savoyards, missed their fantastic 2013 season, or have never even been to a live show – 2014 is your year to find out more.

With the hilarious, cabaret revue, Forbidden Broadway, earmarked as the company's first production of the year, now is the time to make sure you are a part of something that cannot be missed.

Visit the Savoyards website; find them on Facebook; read their blog; or sign up for their e-newsletter to get the latest information on ticket releases, auditions, special offers and much, much more.

Queensland Foot Centres offering the right approach to your podiatry needs.

With a reputation as one of Queensland's most experienced and respected podiatry service, Queensland Foot Centres is all about helping people, no matter what their condition, to get back on their feet – literally.

The private podiatry practice offers professional diagnosis, treatment, rehabilitation and prevention of medical and surgical conditions of the feet and lower limbs.

But it is the Centre's multi-disciplinary approach to podiatric care that makes this Centre, which has nine clinics throughout South East Queensland, one of the best places to visit if you want to put your best foot forward.

This is because the Centre's team of specialists not only has more than 50 years of combined experience within all areas of podiatry but also a special interest in acute and chronic pain and the contacts to make sure that you are always getting the best advice and treatment.

Working from a number of sports medicine centres in Brisbane allows the practice to enjoy close working relationships with some of Australia's leading sports medicine professionals including sports physicians, physiotherapists, massage therapists and dieticians. And with sports heroes such as Jonathan Brown of the Brisbane Lions, James Horwill of the Queensland Reds and Olympic gold medalists Sara Carrigan and Emma Sowsill, on the client list, the Centre is ensuring that it maintains its high standing as an expert in the treatment, management and prevention of foot and lower leg injuries.

So no matter what your age or whether your condition is the result of a sports injury, an accident, illness, diabetes, arthritis, your posture or gait, or if you just need general foot care for anything from chronic nail conditions to corns and ingrown toe nails, the team at Queensland Foot Centres have the experience to tailor treatments to your specific needs and circumstances.

Don't suffer in pain any longer - contact Queensland Foot Centres on 3379 1200 to find out how this group of professionals can help you.

The Swashbuckling Pirates of Penzance Comes To Town...

If you are after just one rollicking good time this year then the Iona Performing Arts Centre is the place to be this September and October when the Pirates of Penzance come sailing into town.

Directed by Alec Raymond, choreographed by Renee Allotta and with Geoffrey Secomb as musical director, this swashbuckling Broadway version of Penzance includes all the fun and irreverence of the classic Gilbert and Sullivan musical.

If you've never enjoyed the Pirates Of Penzance, but always thought you might like to, this is the version you have to see.

The Savoyards have chosen to take on board this very model of a modern Broadway musical - the wacky 1980 version which took New York by storm – and give it the special Savoyards touch ensuring, as always, that audiences enjoy a great night out at the theatre.

The Pirates is a riotous, operatic tale of mistaken identity, wrapped in a storyline which includes a roughish pirate king, a search for treasure, sentimental pirates, bumbling policemen, dim witted lovers, dewy-eyed daughters and of course an eccentric major-general.

This hilarious and farcical musical about honour, duty and morals, summarized in the tongue twisting hilarious hit “in matters vegetable, animal and mineral, I am the very model of a modern Major General”, is definitely a performance not to be missed.

To find out more, including how to book tickets ($38 adults, $35 concession, $20 junior) for the 28th September to 12th October evening and matinee performances of Pirates of Penzance, visit www.savoyards.com.au or phone 3893 4321.
